There is nothing binding in this statement. We need it on file so that we can logically evaluate the Missionary's account before clearance is given to the field and begin missionary work.

All checks should be made payable to Awana Clubs International and sent to the address above. Please designate the check clearly for the missionary you wish to support.

All Awana missionaries are faith missionaries, totally dependent upon the gifts of God's people for their needs. Monies given are forwarded to them in entirety; nothing is deducted for administrative expenses.
